

Drafter Job Description

The ideal candidate is a self-motivated individual who will provide drafting assistance with oversight on projects from concept design phase through construction documents and revisions.

Responsibilities

- The Primary role will be to prepare Structural construction plans and details.
- Collaborate with engineering staff and architects on a variety of building structure types, including Commercial, Industrial, mid-rise and low-rise multi-family residential, custom single-family residential, and unique projects such as landscape artwork.

Qualifications

- 3-5 years minimum experience in AutoCAD drafting
- Revit experience is valued but not required
- Experience within the building design field is prioritized
- Excellent written and verbal communication and organizational skills